INTRODUCTION

This index is multifaceted, each article being indexed in as many places as there are facets of useful information in it.

VOCABULARY The vocabulary of the headings is that of the Jewish Chronicle itself, and follows no set rules of library practice. Some additional headings are:- Accidents & DISASTERS; BLIND; DEAF; DEATH (excluding obituaries); DIVORCE; HANDICAPPED & DISABLED; LONELINESS; MARRIAGE, etc.

INSTITUTIONS All institutions are indexed, but some names may be inverted, e.g. ROYAL INSTITUTE OF BOTANICAL RESEARCH is indexed at INSTITUTE OF BOTANICAL RESEARCH, ROYAL.

COUNTRIES EGYPT; ISRAEL; JORDAN; USA and USSR have an inner alphabetical sequence (as do U.N.O.(UN); WOMEN; and ZIONISM).

CITIES British cities with a large Jewish Community have been divided as follows:- BIRMINGHAM: COMMUNITY; EDUCATION; SYNAGOGUES; ZION; ZIONA.

HISTORICAL FIGURES These are connected with Jewry, e.g. EINSTEIN; HITLER; MONTEFIORE; STALIN. The name of the Chief Rabbi also appears.

OBITUARIES AND BOOK REVIEWS These appear on separate reels.

FORMAT Regular columns and features are indicated and underlined, e.g. ON THE OTHER HAND; ASK THE RABBI. They also appear on their own cards (ASK THE RABBI being indexed at RABBI, ASK THE.) (CARTOONS) and (PHOTOS) are indicated, as well as Corr(espondence) and Art(icles) - the latter as opposed to items of news. By lines are acknowledged with the words "reported by ..." The figures at the end of every entry indicate location in the actual text of the Jewish Chronicle, e.g.12, 6-11 being page 12 of the issue of 6th November.
